

The English School Experience

"I am a happy teacher. The school has given me everything I need to grow as a professional and as a person"

Leonardo Fabio Correa, Humanities teacher

--- ○ "The English School provides a lot of tools and resources for you to develop your best potential as a teacher. As well, they help you with professional development such as taking courses with the IB"

Andrea Vanegas, Third grade tutor

--- ○ "What I like the most about my teacher is that she is a good person and treats me well"

Isabella Romero Bahamón, 2-3 student

"The experience of working at The English School has been one of the best experiences not just because of the international curriculum but also thanks to freedom so that it is possible to develop at work. There is amplitude academic processes that are developed with other schools in the U.K., Europe and the United States "

Julio Armando Beltrán, Humanities teacher

"My experience working in The English School has been very positive. I really enjoy the collaboration and I love my colleagues, they support me and are very friendly, and the students are also lovely and honest people"

Danielle Katherine Costa, MYP English teacher

"About my teacher, I like that she makes us games related to the class"

Nicolás Vásquez Serrano, 2-3 student

"One of the best things about working at The English School is the staff from all over the world, Colombian and international teachers sharing experiences and learning from other schools support me in everything I do"

Brendan Lawler, Film teacher

"Every time that someone doesn't understand something our teachers explain to us in different ways to make it easier for everyone to understand"

○ María Paula Gómez Martínez, 8-4 student

"They are always ready to help us, it doesn't matter who is the one asking for help"

Sebastián Quiroga Vargas, 7-1 student

○ "What I like the most about my teacher is that he prepares fun classes for the topics"

Sofía Goldsztajn Bernal, 3-5 student

○ "What I like about belonging to The English School community is that my son, who entered from kindergarten and is currently in ninth grade, is a happy young man who loves his school. As a mother I can actively participate in his education, because the school provides opportunities for getting closely involved"

Eylin Janer Moreno, mother

"We are a committed and international community that seeks the well-being and care of our children and the development of their personal potential through a culture of excellence in an intercultural learning environment. "

Cira Prieto, mother

"The English School every day makes me feel happy and productive. It is a diverse and committed community, with a working environment that allows you to grow personally and professionally. "

○ Diego Alejandro Bohórquez,
System Coordinator

"The school's priority is the well-being of its students and workers. It's a nice place to work where you can develop new ideas and have the support of your bosses and teammates"
