THE ENGLISH SCHOOL STOOD OUT AT THE 5TH AACBI NATIONAL CHILDREN'S CUP!

From 23 to 25 April, our facilities hosted a real sporting celebration: the fifth edition of the AACBI National Children's Cup. This major event brought together 800 athletes from 23 schools across six cities in the country and one school from the Dominican Republic, who competed in basketball, football and volleyball, accompanied by more than 1,200 family members and friends.

TES RESULTS:

Our athletes performed exceptionally, and these were the most notable achievements:

Boys' Football

We're champions!

Juan David Salazar, of Grade 7: award for the Tournament's Best Player.

Girls' Football

We're Runners-up!

María Alejandra Santana, of Grade 5: award for Best Female Player
Chiara De Maupeou, of Grade 7, y Victoria Moncada, of Grade 6:
Award for the Least Beaten Hurdle

Boys' Volleyball
A strong team that finished in third place.

Boys' Basketball
We achieved fourth place
Juan Esteban Salazar, of Grade 6: Top scorer of the tournament with a total of 99 points.

We would like to give a special mention to our girls' volleyball and basketball teams. Both teams put in an outstanding performance in some extremely close matches. Their performance highlighted the excellent work and training programme currently underway in these sports, demonstrating that the future of girls' sport at our school looks extremely promising.

Congratulations to all the athletes for giving it their all on the playing field!

ADDITIONALLY...

This success is the result of the joint efforts of our entire community. We would like to extend our special gratitude to all the coaches at The English School for their hard work in organising and running the tournament; their professionalism has, once again, been clearly demonstrated.

Likewise, the flawless logistics were made possible thanks to the support and dedication of the following departments: Health Care Area, Communications, Transport, Maintenance, General Services, Security, Accounting and Purchasing, to whom we are immensely grateful.

Now we are preparing to keep getting bigger.
See you at the 2027 event, from 22 to 24 April!
